$9.8 million announced to improve internet connectivity in Chetwynd

$9.8 million in combined federal and provincial funding has been announced, that will improve internet connectivity for approximately 1,600 households in Chetwynd. This is part of a $24-million joint commitment to improve connectivity throughout northern B.C.

"Through our strong partnership with the federal government, we continue to make steady progress in closing the remaining connectivity gaps in the province, bringing us closer to our goal of connecting every B.C. household by 2027," said Lisa Beare, B.C.'s Minister of Citizens' Services.

"Through our StrongerBC Economic Plan, we are committed to ensuring everyone in the province has an equal opportunity for success and has access to high-speed internet." "Reliable internet connectivity is required by residents and businesses for work, school, medical care and economic reasons," said Allen Courtoreille, the Mayor of Chetwynd.

On March 8, 2022, the parties announced a historic partnership to invest as much as $830 million to connect every British Columbian in rural, remote and Indigenous communities with high-speed internet.

The first announcement of $108 million was made on May 19, 2022, and will improve internet access for as many as 4,000 households in Northern B.C.

When a new child visited our Sunday school, the teacher greeted him and asked his age. The little boy held up four fingers. "Oh, you're four," said the teacher, and when will you be 5?" The child stared at her and after a few seconds replied "when I hold up one more finger."

You never really know the true impact you have on those around you. You never know how much someone needed that smile you gave them. You never know how much your kindness turned someone entire life around. you never know how much someone needed that long hug or deep talk. So don't wait to be kind. Don't wait for someone else to be kind first. Don't wait for better circumstances or for someone to change. Just be kind, because you never know how much someone needs it
