Chetwynd Welcomes The Boys Back Home

One night only - Friday May 5th. Connor Pohl, TJ Rounthwaite, and Tay Ewart will be coming home for a one night only performance at the Tamarack Hall in the Chetwynd District Rec Centre. If you are unfamiliar with Violet Night then you have been missing out. Go to their Spotify, Facebook page or pull them up on YouTube.

If you got a little side-tracked listening to the tunes we get it. "Headtrip" can have that effect on you... It does on us too. But don't stop there. Check out "Save Me", "I Hope You're Well", "Hate Me". They are all great songs and if you aren't already hooked, you soon will be. In their own words "just some boys doing the damn thing."

It'll be a great show, but there's a catch. Tickets are on sale now, but given the small space there is a chance you could miss out. Go online and get your tickets now to make sure. You're going to be upset if you wait and lose out... trust us. These hometown boys are going to be entertaining.

Tickets can be purchased online by simply scanning this code and following the link. Tickets are $30.00 each plus taxes. And again, the seating capacity is limited so don't wait.

Watch for our exclusive Q&A with Connor Pohl, TJ Rounthwaite and Tay Ewart in our next issue as they share with us some of the band's history and what is coming up next for them!

B.C. will formally recognize National Day for Truth and Reconciliation legislation to make Orange Shirt Day, September 30th, the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and now the B.C. provincial government announcing this legislation today, it will help to ensure that what happened to us will never happen again and will never be forgotten.”

If passed, more British Columbians will be able to get involved in advancing reconciliation by participating in local commemoration or education events, having important conversations with their families, their friends and their communities, and finding meaningful ways to learn more about shared history.

“Many British Columbians have been marking Orange Shirt Day with humility, respect and reflection in their own ways for years,” said Premier David Eby. “Today, we are taking the important step to enshrine this day in law to acknowledge the wrongdoings of the past, and to take meaningful action toward reconciliation.”

Harry Bains, Minister of Labour, said: “This is an important step in our commitment to lasting reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples in B.C. Having a provincial statutory holiday means more workers across the province will now be able to observe the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, joining those in the public sector and in federally regulated jobs who already had this opportunity.”

The Ministry of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation sought feedback from Indigenous Peoples on how best to observe this day in B.C. The Ministry of Labour also consulted with employers and workers.

“For decades, Indigenous leaders have called upon governments to publicly recognize the harms caused by residential schools, Indian Day Schools and Indian hospitals, as well as the Sixties Scoop,” said Murray Rankin, Minister of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation. “This day is about taking time to reflect on the experience of residential school survivors and their families, while learning about and honouring the strength, resilience, and contributions of Indigenous communities in our province.”

The National Day for Truth and Reconciliation will be enshrined in B.C. law to honour the strength and resilience of residential school survivors and remember the children who never came home.

This new provincial statutory day of commemoration responds to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Call to Action No. 80, which called on the federal government to establish a holiday to honour survivors, their families and communities. If passed, British Columbia will join Canada, Prince Edward Island, the Northwest Territories, Nunavut and the Yukon as jurisdictions that have designated Sept. 30 as a statutory holiday.

“One day there will be no survivors left in Canada. What is forgotten is often repeated,” said Phyllis Webstad, Orange Shirt Day Society. “With the federal government passing

Vegetarian shepherd's pie

Say hello to a new family favourite. This classic dish with a twist is so tasty, you may want a second serving.

Start to finish: 1 hour

Servings: 4-6

Ingredients

- 4 medium-sized sweet potatoes, cut into big chunks
- 1/4 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 large onion, finely chopped
- 1 clove garlic, finely chopped
- 1 carrot, diced
- 1 celery stalk, diced
- 1 cup button mushrooms, sliced
- 1 540-millilitre can lentils, drained and rinsed
- 1 teaspoon dried thyme
- Salt and pepper to taste

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 350 °F (175 °C).
2. Cook sweet potatoes in boiling water until tender. Drain the water, add the milk and butter and mash until smooth. Salt and pepper to taste and set aside.
3. Heat the oil in a large pan, and sauté the onion, garlic, carrot, celery and mushrooms for about five minutes or until soft. Add the lentils and thyme. Mix well and transfer to an 8 x 11 inch (20 x 28 centimetre) baking dish. Cover with the sweet potato purée.
4. Cook for about 30 minutes and serve.

HOROSCOPE

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 12 TO 18, 2023

The luckiest signs this week: Capricorn, Aquarius and Pisces

- ARIES A strange event could disturb your peace of mind. Have faith that your loved ones will help you discover the joy in life. Perhaps being more trusting would help.
- TAURUS You must weigh the pros and cons before making a decision. You may be asked questions to which you don't have the answers, which could leave you perplexed.
- GEMINI You'll have many details to sort out at work and at home. You'll feel a sense of accomplishment for completing the tasks you've been putting off.
- CANCER Big plans are in order when it comes to your home life. Your relationship could go in an entirely new direction after an in-depth conversation. A family member or friend may announce they're expecting.
- LEO This week will be hectic. You may have to work overtime or manage demanding family obligations before you can relax.
- VIRGO If you're making changes at home, in your work or even in your decor, you'll find good deals, and your property will increase in value. Don't hesitate to ask for a raise.
- LIBRA You could face some unexpected expenses. Fortunately, you'll get something lasting in return. You'll negotiate an arrangement that benefits you if you must borrow.
- SCORPIO Although you're expecting a quiet week, you'll be busy. There's a lot of action and surprises ahead. Fortunately, there's also some fun in store.
- SAGITTARIUS Significant changes are on the horizon, both professionally and personally. It would help if you learned how to relax to lower your stress level and enjoy the novelty.
- CAPRICORN You'll develop a more active social life this week, even if it's only on social media. You and your friends will sign up for art classes, yoga or another kind of wellness program.
- AQUARIUS Your boss will offer you a promotion as if on a silver platter. You'll be excited about taking on new professional and personal projects, even if you're short on time.
- PISCES A getaway or trip is on the agenda. You're in the mood for a party and will organize a celebration get-together. You'll also start a new spiritual practice.
